

Don Buhler

Don Buhler is the retired band director from Pratt, KS. He was the band director for the public schools in Pratt for 30 years.

He has also been the band director for Stafford, KS school system and also for Salina Central High School, in Salina, Kansas. He is a native of El Dorado, KS and holds bachelors and masters degrees in Music Education from Wichita State University. Mr. Buhler is a member of Kansas Music Educator's Association and has served as the KMEA State Honor Band Chairman. In retirement, he is spending time judging music festivals and working for Americorps.