

---

MANDA DEEGAN

---

BIO

---

Manda Deegan is a violin and viola instructor and musician in Salina, Kansas. A graduate of The University of Denver, Deegan spent a decade traveling and teaching lessons in locations from Korea to Kentucky during her husband's army career. She settled in Salina with her husband, Paul and son, Jaimisen in 2007 and has since played both violin and viola with The Salina Symphony, The Lindsborg Bethany Oratorio Society and Messiah Festival Orchestra, The Hays Symphony, and The Hutchinson Symphony. Deegan currently has a private studio of 50 violin and viola students, is on the summer music faculty for High Plains Music Camp, adjudicates all over the region, and is an officer of The Salina Symphony Guild.